ROOM CONFIGURATIONS IN RESIDENTIAL CARE

THE FACTS YOU AND YOUR LOVED ONES NEED TO KNOW

Private Rooms

- O 87% of rooms in Residential Care are private rooms for one person.
- 9 out of 10 rooms in privately owned and operated care homes are private.
- O Most newer care homes have only private and semi-private rooms.
- O Single person rooms provide privacy but may increase social isolation.

Semi-Private

- O 9% of rooms in Residential Care are semi-private rooms shared by two residents.
- Two Thirds of semi-private rooms in British Columbia are found in privately owned and operated care homes.

- O Semi-private rooms allow seniors the flexibility to live with a loved one, such as a spouse, or dear friend.

Multi-Person

- O 4% of Rooms in Residential Care are multi-person rooms shared by 3 to 5 residents.
- Over 80% of multi-person rooms are found in government owned and operated care homes.
- O The average age of a care home with multi-person rooms is 41 years.
- O Multi-person rooms can help combat social-isolation, but may lack privacy.

Facts & Figures on

SOCIAL ISOLATION · LONELINESS

- O Nearly one in four seniors reported that they would like to participate more in social activities.
- Social isolation and loneliness are associated with a higher risk of mortality in adults aged 52 and older
- O Increased loneliness can lead to depression as well as cognitive decline and increased risk of dementia among older adults.
- Isolation is as strong a factor in early death as smoking 15 cigarettes a day.

For further information, click here.

