What is Assurity®?

Assurity® is B.C.'s certification program for home health and independent living organizations, making it easier for seniors and their families to pick a provider that upholds high industry quality standards.

What does Assurity® indicate?

Assurity® certification indicates that a provider has demonstrated policies, practices, and procedures in place in key areas, including privacy, safety, client or resident onboarding, emergency preparedness, and client satisfaction.

How do I know if a provider is Assurity® Approved?

An Assurity® Approved operator will display the Assurity® logo. You can also find a full list of certified operators on Route65.ca.
