

Canada
Province of British Columbia
A Proclamation

CHARLES THE THIRD, by the Grace of God, King of Canada and His other Realms and Territories, Head of the Commonwealth

To all to whom these presents shall come – Greeting

WHEREAS thousands of people work in the seniors living and wellness sector in British Columbia, providing a vital community service that supports healthy families and healthy communities, and

WHEREAS seniors care is a critical component of health care, and seniors care providers support individuals with diverse needs in their homes, as well as in community and long-term care settings, and

WHEREAS in British Columbia, seniors care providers are recognized and appreciated for their dedication and commitment to improving quality of life for the individuals they care for, while balancing their own work and family obligations, and

WHEREAS every day in British Columbia, seniors care providers deliver a wide range of services and support with compassion, professionalism and generosity, and

WHEREAS Seniors Care Providers Day is an opportunity to recognize and celebrate the seniors care providers who help build healthy, age-friendly communities and assist many people in British Columbia in their later years;

NOW KNOW YE THAT We do by these presents proclaim and declare that March 5, 2025 shall be known as in the Province of British Columbia.

“Seniors Care Providers Day”

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of Our Province of British Columbia to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS, The Honourable Wendy Cocchia, Lieutenant Governor of Our Province of British Columbia, in Our City of Victoria, in Our Province, this twentieth day of February, two thousand twenty-five and in the third year of Our Reign.

BY COMMAND.

Attorney General and Deputy Premier

Lieutenant Governor
